

Réka PALÓCZ, the soprano soloist of the Ensemble Musica Historica is an experienced choir-singer. She has performed several solo parts with the Bartók Béla Choir of the Eötvös Loránd University of Budapest, touring with them for years. As the sound building teacher of the choir and leader of music camps she has proved her excellent pedagogic sense. After her final examinations in the ELTE Secondary School Radnóti Miklós (Practicing school of the Eötvös Loránd University), she became a student of mathematics and descriptive geometry at the same university. She graduated in 1996 and was admitted to the Secondary School of Music Bartók Béla in Budapest. She studied singing with Zsuzsa Németh and went on to study at the Music Faculty of the Széchenyi István University, Győr with Judith Németh. She was a regular participant of the master classes of Júlia Hamari, Anna Reynolds and Ilona Adorján. She graduated in 2001 and has been a member of the Ensemble Musica Historica since 1994.

