

Piroska Vitárius

graduated from The Liszt Academy of Music in 1995. She has participated on several early music courses throughout Europe. She taught baroque violin and chamber music at The Liszt Academy of Music, performed in Concerto Armonico and was a charter member and concertmaster of Orfeo orchestra. Presently she is the concertmaster of Savaria Baroque Orchestra, the member of Musica Profana and Tercina ensembles and teacher of baroque violin at Renaissance and Baroque Week in Győr. She is the soloist of several national and international concerts and CD recordings.